

WEEK 1 — THE MEDITERRANEAN AS A CROSSROADS OF PEACE AND CIVILIZATION

The birth of peace thinking between ethics, cooperation and responsibility

UN Focus: SDGs 4, 11, 16, 17 — Education, Sustainable Communities, Peace, Partnerships

Path: The Mind – Awareness

Introduction

The first week marks the entry into the SPU training program. Students are introduced to the philosophy of peace, the ethical dimension of leadership, and the basic principles of LPP planning. The Mediterranean, a place of encounter and exchange, becomes a metaphor for coexistence and dialogue between cultures.

Educational objective:

Acquire an ethical and cultural vision of peace; understand how values, knowledge, and cooperation can translate into action planning and global responsibility.

Day	Lesson Title	Afternoon Activities	Evening Activities
Monday 5	Opening Ceremony – Oath of the Peacemakers Keynote: “The Mediterranean as a Bridge of Civilizations”	White Paper 1/4 Editorial Setup	Cultural Evening & Team-Building Animation
		Peace Leadership Skills 1/4 Dialogue Facilitation and Group Dynamics
Tuesday 6	The Culture of Peace: Philosophical Roots and Global Citizenship Mediterranean Cooperation and Soft Diplomacy	Journey through the Territory – Discovering Calabria's Cultural and Environmental Heritage	–
Wednesday 7	Education for Peace and Intercultural Understanding	Peace Talks: The Mediterranean as a Bridge of Civilizations: Peace Leadership, Soft Diplomacy and Coexistence	Cultural Lab – Food, Land and Memory: Gastronomic Diplomacy
	Women and Peace Leadership in the Mediterranean World
Thursday 8	LPP Module – Introduction to Peace Project Design	LPP Evaluation and Feedback – Analysis and Feedback of Initial Concepts	Peace Music Festival “Sound of the Earth”
	Sustainability and Peace: From Local Action to Global Vision	Peace Memo 1 Draft Session
Friday 9	Peace Lab – The Mediterranean as a Laboratory of Coexistence	Peace Memo 1 Finalization	–
		International Public Forum – The Sea Between Us: Peace and Cooperation in the Mediterranean

WEEK 2 — THE WORLD AND ITS EQUILIBRIUMS: AFRICA, EUROPE, ASIA, AMERICAS

Analyzing the powers, conflicts and cooperation of the 21st century

UN Focus: SDG 8, 10, 13, 16, 17 – Decent Work & Growth, Reduced Inequalities, Climate Action, Peace

Path: The Heart – Compassion

Introduction:

A week dedicated to comparative geopolitical reading of the world: Africa, Europe, Asia, and the Americas. Students explore power, conflicts, transitions, and new strategies for cooperation, preparing for the institutional reflection of the third week.

Educational objective:

To be able to analyze global geopolitical areas, interpret interdependencies, and understand how peace is built through a balance between differences and cooperation.

Day	Lesson Title	Afternoon Activities	Evening Activities
Monday 12 – Africa	African Sovereignties and Regional Integration	White Paper 2/4 Editorial Check-in	Cultural Evening & Team-Building Animation
	Postcolonial Borders and African Renaissance	Peace Leadership Skills 2/4 Practical Negotiation and Mediation
Tuesday 13 - Europe	European Governance and Global Responsibility	Journey through the Territory – Discovering Calabria's Cultural and Environmental Heritage	–
	Security, Migration and the Future of the Union
Wednesday 14 – Asia	Multipolarity and Indo-Pacific Strategies	Peace Talks: The World Table: New Global Equilibriums, Institutions and Cooperative Power	Cultural Lab – Food, Land and Memory: Gastronomic Diplomacy
	Regional Cooperation and Development in South-East Asia
Thursday 15 – Americas	Power Shifts and New Global Balances in the Americas	LPP Evaluation and Restitution – Comparative synthesis of emerging projects	Peace Music Festival “Sound of the Earth”
	Social Movements and Democratic Transitions	Peace Memo 2 Draft Session
Friday 16	Peace Lab – The World Table: Negotiating the Future of Global Governance	Peace Memo 2 Finalization	–
		International Public Forum – New Global Equilibriums and the Future of Peace	